

RIGHT OF REVOCATION

You are entitled to revoke your contractual declarations in writing without stating a reason within one (1) month, commencing from the date of receipt of the ordered goods and this written instruction. In order to effect such a revocation, it is sufficient to send a written notice of revocation (e.g. by letter, telefax or e-mail) within the above defined period of time.

The revocation must be addressed to

Most Effective Software GmbH
Ulmer Str. 62

Germany

Email: contact@mosteffective.eu
Telefax: 1212-5-11552911

Consequences of Revocation

In case of a valid revocation, rendered services must be returned to the other party including possible benefits (e.g. interest). If you cannot return the services in whole or partially to us, or if you can return them only in a diminished condition, you may have to provide compensation to us. The aforementioned does not apply if the diminished condition is solely a result of its examination, e.g. as might occur in a shop. You may avoid such compensation by not using the goods and by avoiding any actions that could affect their value. Goods which can be sent as a package must be returned to us.

Special Notes

Your right of revocation will expire prematurely if you or your contractual partner, with your explicit approval, have already begun to utilise the services before the end of the term for revocation (e.g. by download etc.).

Furthermore, a right of revocation does not exist for delivered goods which cannot physically be returned
